SEARCH FOR THE PEGASUS

You are halfling, Thomas Blackfoot. You must rescue your dear friend, Clarion the pegasus, from the Blue Hag's hideous torture. Resolved to end the evil witch's tyranny over your forest home, you call on the aid of your most trusted friends: Sir Robert, a noble warrior gnome, and Michael, the spirited but stout-hearted leprechaun. Though the three of you have an average height of only three and a half feet, you make a determined band as you set out to defeat the Blue Hag.

The others don't know it, but you have two secrets that will help you on your quest—your secret thieving abilities and the powers of a special Ruby of Seeing. This magical gem allows you to detect things that are invisible, locate hidden doors, decipher magical messages, and much more. But beware—either your thieving talents or the Ruby of Seeing could reveal more information than you care to know!

All ENDLESS QUEST® books allow you to make the decisions. You choose the paths to follow. But CRIMSON CRYSTAL™ Adventures offer something more—a unique way of finding clues to lead you along the right path—you hope. To see how this magic works, turn to page 1 and start reading.
